Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 12 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some sunshine and scattered showers.

Today:
After a cloudy start it will brighten up this morning with some sunshine breaking through. There will also be scattered showers, some of these locally heavy and slow moving this afternoon. Light winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers mostly drying out to leave dry weather overnight. Clear periods in the west but some mist and low cloud over Lanarkshire and the Glasgow area. Mild with light winds. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:
Mist and low cloud dispersing then bright with spells spells developing. There will be some showers but they will be fewer and lighter than on Wednesday. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A lot of dry weather with bright spells but some light showers breaking out each afternoon, dying away each evening. Light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.